Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Is 7 days enough to learn trading?

While you won't become a market expert in a week, the 7 days trading course is crafted to give you a strong foundation, actionable strategies, and confidence to begin trading. Many students start demo or real trading immediately after completing the course.

What if I'm a complete beginner?

MJFXM's courses are beginner-friendly and include step-by-step instructions, glossary guides, and starter kits. No prior knowledge is required to start learning.

Will I get a certificate after completing the course?

Yes, upon successful completion of any of the 7 days trading course options, you will receive a digital certificate from MJFXM that you can share on LinkedIn or add to your professional portfolio.

Can I take more than one 7-day course?

Absolutely! Many students start with one and move on to others. For example, you might complete the 7 Days Stock Trading & Investing Courses Online and then move into the 7 Days Crypto Trading Strategies Course.

Are these courses self-paced?

Each course includes structured daily content, but you can complete it at your own pace. If needed, you can pause and resume lessons as your schedule allows.

Conclusion

If you've been waiting for the perfect time to start trading this is it. With MJFXM's 7 days trading course, you can learn the most critical concepts, tools, and techniques of stock, forex, and cryptocurrency markets in just one week.

We've eliminated the complexity and built a results-driven program designed for real-world application. Whether you're chasing financial independence, career growth, or simply the thrill of the markets, MJFXM is here to help you trade smarter.
